

Office for Civil Rights
U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services
Washington, D.C., 20201

Office for Civil Rights
U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services
Washington, D.C., 20201

Please staple or tape card shut.

In the United States, there is a law called the Civil Rights Act of 1964 which protects limited English speaking persons. Health care facilities who receive any federal funding, must by law locate an interpreter or bilingual staff member to communicate with the client. If not provided the client may file a complaint with the Office for civil rights.

Person or Entity who has discriminated against the client:

Name:

Address:

City:

State & Zip Code:

Phone # with area code:

Client information:

Name:

Address:

City:

State & zip code:

Phone # with area code:

Complaint/Issue: